

Doctor of Business Administration (DBA)

Program Overview

Total Duration	24 – 36 Months
Total Credits	180 ECTS (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System)
Delivery Mode	100% Online (Asynchronous learning supplemented by weekly live sessions)
Core Framework	5 Doctoral-level modules encompassing comprehensive research, scholarly engagement, and practitioner-oriented thesis defense.

Core Modules & Course Framework

CODE	MODULE / COURSE TITLE & DESCRIPTION	CREDITS
RBL810	Research Methodology: Quantitative & Qualitative Analyses Focuses on advanced research tools, rigorous research design, data analysis paradigms, and sophisticated methodologies explicitly geared toward solving complex, practical corporate problems.	30 ECTS
RBL820	Scholarly Engagement I Focuses on developing an extensive, critical literature review, identifying specific research gaps, and constructing contemporary theoretical frameworks of competitive business strategy.	15 ECTS
RBL830	Scholarly Engagement II Involves localized, applied research and literature exploration tailored into advanced specializations such as global marketing strategy, corporate governance, or supply chain dynamics.	15 ECTS
DSSR980	Doctorate Thesis The substantive developmental, drafting, and investigative phase dedicated to executing and finalizing the primary practitioner-oriented independent research project.	90 ECTS
VIVA920	Viva Voce (Oral Defense) The conclusive formal presentation and rigorous defense of the doctoral thesis before an appointed academic and professional examination board.	30 ECTS

Specializations & Strategic Research Tracks

During the Scholarly Engagement and Thesis phases, doctoral candidates align their research framework with one of the following core disciplines:

- Strategic Management & Corporate Policy
- Leadership & Organizational Development
- Finance, Risk Management & Corporate Governance
- Advanced Marketing Strategy & Consumer Insights
- International Human Resource Management
- Entrepreneurship, Innovation & Venture Capital